THE McLANE ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE.

As a most noble example of the munificence of the citizens of Massachusetts, stands this Institution, the Pioneer of New England in this great cause of human ty, relief to the Insane.

Its location is in Charlestown, about one mile in a westerly direction from the Square, on the beautiful eminence known in history as Cobble-Hill, and opposite the village of East Cambridge.

The most full provision, both in its architectural arrangements and the adoption of all the means and advantages for accomplishing the designed objects, have here been adopted, which ample funds and an enlightened policy could suggest. It can accommodate from one hundred and thirty to one hundred and fifty patients, and for the last year has been filled to the extent of its means.

The immediate control is vested in a Board of twelve Trustees, four of whom are chosen by the Governor and Council, and eight by the Corporation, who, by their committee visit the Asylum every week, see all the patients and make a thorough inspection of all the apartments occupied by them.

The expenses are graduated in view of the ability of the patient or his friends, three dollars per week being the minimum rate.

Its officers are appointed by the Trustees and consist of Luther V. Bell, M. D. Physician and Superinten't.

John Fox, M. D. Assis. Physician and Apothecary.
Columbus Tyler, Steward.
Mrs. M. E. Tyler, Matron.
Homer Goodhue, Supervisor Male Wing.
Relief R. Barber, " Female Wing.

Applications for admission of Patients, may be made at the Asylum, or by letter to Dr Bell, Charlestown, Mass. See Reports.

CHARLESTOWN FEMALE SEMINARY.

This Institution was incorporated in March 1833, the design of it was to furnish facilities for a complete Female Education, Moral, Intellectual and Physical, and its patronage, always having been liberal, the Trustees have been enabled to carry out their plan to the full extent of their wishes by furnishing all necessary apparatus, and a large Board of accomplished teachers. They have likewise recently erected a commodious boarding house, containing over 50 rooms, and capable of accommodating about 90 scholars; but every room is already occupied, and many applicants have been unable to gain admittance. Ladies are at present in attendance to the number in all of 136, from 10 of the different states in the union, and from each of the British Provinces and Texas. The teachers are selected from different Religious Denominations, and sectarian views are not of course inculcated.

CAUTION,

To Purchasers of Indellible Ink.

The high reputation which FRANCIS KIDDER'S Indelible Ink has sustained for 15 or 20 years, has caused several imitations of the article to be offered for sale. They resemble the genuine Ink in their exterior appearance, and as some of them bear the name of Kidder, the public have been grossly deceived. To guard against this deception, purchasers will please be particular to ask for Francis Kidder's Ink, and observe that his name is on the top and front of the box.

This Ink cannot be effaced, but is warranted to remain perfectly indelible for ages, if the directions are followed in using it.

For sale by Stationers and Druggists generally, and by the proprietors, Samuel Kidder & Co. Chemists, 71 Main Street, Charlestown.
